The Daily Standard.

The News.

There is a kind of interregnum in our local politics since the war broke out in Europe. Confederation and Responsible Government scarcely command listeners, so great is the general anxiety to hear or discuss the war news. The instantaneous flash of intelligence from western Europe and western Asia brings our people into daily communication—almost within ear-shot—almost face to face with the principals and seconds in the Franco-Prussian duel. In fact a Victorian may be as well, or nearly as well, posted in war news by reading the telegrams in the STANDARD as if he were in London or Paris, or even Berlin. Besides that all the nationalities of Europe are represented in our midst—and many of them are French and Germans. It is no wonder then that our people take a deeper interest in the war than usual; and that local politics is for the day dethroned. Under such circumstances we feel compelled to fall in, with the current of opinion, and talk of "the pomp and circumstance of glorious war," rather than about local politics that much more nearly concerns our best interests at this juncture. The telegrams enable us to say something more about France and Prussia. The war was six days old on the 21st, and on that day the first blood was spilt and the first prisoners taken. The Prussians were the successful party, the French the losers. Such a loss is too trifling to be called war. It simply means that two hundred French soldiers were sent over the frontier to look for information and were surrounded. A few days ago we were told that the Prussians were about attacking Metz, on the Moselle, in France, a fortress a few miles across the frontier, but the rumor has not been confirmed. On the contrary the latest telegrams indicate that if the Prussians did cross the frontier towards Metz they were driven back again, for we find that the French army is massed at Sierck, where the French frontier joins Luxembourg and Prussia. In fact the telegrams indicate that the two armies front each other, and that the French have taken the offensive, whilst the Prussians are on the defensive; and that is the reason why the first two hundred French soldiers were captured. The French left wing appears to be massed at Sierck, whilst their right is opposed to the Prussian left at Saarbruck. The distances between Sierck and Saarbruck is about thirty miles and represents the coterminous boundary of French and Prussian territories. The object of the French seems to be to turn the Prussian right wing so as to get in behind the Prussian army. On the other hand the object of the Prussian left seems to be to turn the French right wing and cut off their communications. The Prussians are evidently strongly posted from Saarbruck all along the river Saar as far as Saarburg. In their centre they have a very strong fortress called Saar Louis. Their base is Coblentz, Mayence, and all the Rhine. There seems to be no doubt but they are on the defensive and await the advance of the French, which seems very slow. That the latter are preparing the way for an advance cannot be doubted, if we interpret the repulse of the French before Saarbruck as the driving back of a large French reconnoitering force. The rumor in the telegram of 21st that the Prussians had fallen back on their base does not appear correct, for the telegrams of the 22d give us the account of the repulse of the French before Saarbruck. Along the line of the Saar we may, therefore, look for the first great battle, which cannot be long deferred. It will be the Rapidan of the war. Beyond a French flotilla on the French frontier of the Rhine, we hear of no aggressive force advancing from that quarter into Prussia. For some reason or other, the neutrality of Baden seems to be respected by France, and the opposing armies have concentrated on their respective territories between Sierck and Saarbruck. Turning from the "front" to Paris, something ominous appears there. We are told that the Corps Legislatif will be dissolved, if it persists in refusing to be prorogued. This is certainly a remarkable state of things, and if it can be interpreted at all, it must be against the Emperor. The Corps Legislatif evidently fear a repulse, and they wish to be in session to speak for France. And hence the Prussian threat to dethrone Bonaparte seems to have some foundation in fact. The demand of the Emperor, too, that Prussia should send a Prussian Prince to Paris as a hostage, or pay into the Bank of France a large sum of money, or hand over the Rhenish Prussian Provinces, as ball to keep the peace of Europe, is so unusual a demand for one civilized nation to make of another, that one can can scarcely interpret the direction of events. If it don't mean that the present struggle is a fight between the Brandenburgs and Bonapartes, rather than between France and Prussia, we can scarcely understand the Prussian threat or the French demand. There is one good that may come of the present war, and if that be effected, history may yet credit the French Emperor with being a benefactor to Europe. It is this: all the European States have been impoverishing their peoples to pile regiment on regiment, and add arsenal to arsenal. One State has been arming against the other. France says it is Prussia that is to blame for it, and Prussia lays the blame on France. Austria, Italy and Russia have to arm to protect themselves against aggression. England too. If the disarmament of Europe can hereafter be traced to the present war, Napoleon may be honored, and if that be his object, he will be deservedly honored. A new feature in international politics is the rumor that the United States is about to offer its services as a mediator between France and Prussia. But there is no probability of either party accepting the offer till a decisive battle has been fought.

Public Meeting.

A public meeting was held at Lillooet on the evening of the 16th inst., to consider the matter touching the suspension of the Hon. T. B. Humphreys from his functions as a member of the Legislative Council. The meeting was called to order by George Bailie, Esq. James Crozer, Esq., was nominated as chairman, and Richard Hoey, Esq., as secretary.

The chairman having stated the object of the meeting, declared the meeting open for discussion, and for the reception of any resolution or amendment that might be offered

Robert Carson, Esq., farmer, from Pavillion Mountain, moved the following resolution, which was ably seconded by Thomas Spelman, Esq:

Resolved—That this meeting, after calmly reviewing the political career of our representative, Thomas Basil Humphreys, is of the opinion,

That the suspension of Mr. Humphreys by Governor Musgrave, is an unjustifiable act, a most unwarrantable exercise of arbitrary power, and dangerous, as tending to rouse a spirit of resistance, and thereby bring her Majesty's Government into disrepute and contempt,

That this meeting pass a vote of confidence in Mr. Humphreys, and endorse the resolution passed by the citizens of Victoria, at the Victoria Theatre on May 13th, 1870, and that the best thanks of this meeting are due, and are hereby tendered to the Hon. A. DeCosmos, and James Trimble, Esq., Mayor of Victoria, who have proved themselves on this occasion, faithful patriots of the Old Flag, and the people, and the true friends of right and justice.

That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and to each of the newspapers of the Country.

Mr. Humphreys was then called on, and in a very clever speech, defended his action in the Legislative Council, and explained the nature of the language alleged to have been used by him at the Victoria Theatre on April 11, 1870, when denouncing a system of government, which he said, "was as wicked, as it was discreditable." The speaker who was listened to with the greatest attention, concluded his speech amid showers of applause.

The Chairman then asked if there was any gentleman who wished to speak against, or make any amendment to the resolution. No body appeared disposed to do either. A show of hands was then taken in favor of the resolution, which was carried unanimously. A vote of thanks was proposed to the Chairman, and Secretary, which was carried by acclamation.

The meeting which was well attended, was composed of the principal farmers, and traders, in the district, and one of the most orderly which has ever assembled at Lillooet

RICHARD HOEY, Secretary.

VOICE OF THE STARS.—On the 23d of this month the King of Prussia has Mars in opposition to his Sun's place; and he meets a check in his ambitious moves, which arises entirely from his having the Sun in his exaltation, in trine to his ascendant. At his last birthday, Mars was on his ascendant, which indicates further quarrelsome and discontented conduct on his part this season. He will meet trouble, by the death of a female, not far from this time. On the 1st day we find Mars on the ascendant of the King of Sweden; which will excite him to quarrel, and he may gain some move on the chess-board of destiny, since he has Jupiter now very near his Sun.

The above prediction appears in one of the European prophetic almanacs. Lovers of the marvellous may compare events with the prophecy.

OMINECA INTELLIGENCE.—By the arrival of the Sir James Douglas yesterday evening four miners arrived from Omineca via Skeena river. The party were 10½ days from the mouth of the Skeena to the Forks, six days from the Forks to Rabine lake, where they had to remain eight days trying to get Indians to pack their provisions to lake Tatlah, a distance of 24 miles of land travel and 8 by water. At lake Tatlah they dug out a canoe and arrived at Tatlah Landing in one and a-half days. The mining news has already been anticipated by parties who have arrived here by the Fraser river route. It is the old story that the mines are about "played out."

CARIBOO ITEMS.—We clip the following from the Sentinel of July 10th: An Indian woman was found dead in her bed on the 8th July, an inquest was held and returned a verdict that she died by intemperance. A large number of complaints are being made about the want of good trails from one creek to the other. Some hydraulic companies have been obliged to stop work for want of water. The weather has been very dry for the past few weeks. Some quartz from a vein in the Brown claim, on Lowhee creek, has been assayed at the Government Assay Office, Barkerville and the result was $1,900 to the ton.

POLICE COURT.—On Saturday morning two Indians, who sport the democratic names of "Bob" and "Bi ly," appeared before the Police Court charged with fighting in the streets. Both were ordered to enter into security in the sum of $10 to be of good behaviour for three months, or in default to suffer one month's imprisonment with hard labor.

FROM THE EAST COAST.—The steamer Sir James Douglas, Capt. Clarke, arrived from Nanaimo and way ports on Saturday evening with about 20 passengers; among whom were Mrs. and Miss Moss, Mr. Harris and four Omenica miners, who came down on the Constantine from Fort Tongas to Nanaimo. The Constantine was coaling and would leave on Sunday morning for Fort Townsend. The ship David Hoadley arrived at Nanaimo and was discharging ballast, preparatory to taking in a cargo of 1600 tons of coal for San Francisco. The Quarry Company have built a large wharf at Newcastle Island, which will be of great service to vessels loading stone in future. The Douglas made the trip to Nanaimo in an hour less than she formerly did. Her new boilers suite first-rate, and reflects great credit on the foundry where they were built, (the Albina.) The Douglas will leave to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock, for Nanaimo, Comox and way places.

PROSPECTING PARTIES.—By the arrival of the Douglas on Saturday evening from Nanaimo we have news from the Skeena and Naas rivers by a returned Omineca miner: The Mitchell party are at Acquilgette awaiting the return of the Maiden party, who have been out prospecting the adjacent hills. The Skeena river is two high at present for any prospecting to be done. Mitchell has only got about six weeks provision left, after they are exhausted he will be compelled to return to Victoria, as there are no more provisions on the river. Dr. Chisholm has gone up the Naas river with a party of Indians on a prospecting tour. It is expected they will strike something good, as information was received by the Doctor, who is stationed at Tongas, that rich mineral deposits were to be found on the river.

PANTHER SHOT.—A party of gentlemen, were on a visit to Saanich yesterday, and while there, a large panther made an attack upon a pig on the farm of Mr. Moses. The alarm was at once given by the dogs, when all the party armed themselves with guns (kindly furnished by Mr. H. Wain) and went in pursuit. They had not proceeded far when he was discovered in a tree, in the act of springing upon one of the party; but several well aimed shots brought him to the ground. It is a matter of uncertainty as to who fired the fatal shot, each claiming the glory. They, however, brought the paws into town, as a trophy, which can be seen at Frank Campbell's, "the Adelphi corner."

THE LECTURE.—On Saturday evening the Alhambra hall was well filled with a number of ladies and gentlemen to listen to the answer of Mr. Todd, the Spiritualists lecturer, to Mr. Bishop, who spoke against it the previous evening. All we have got to say is, that Mr. Todd answered all the objections set up by Mr. Bishop, in a very clever manner. The gentleman is a very good lecturer and well worth listening to. He will give his last lecture to-night, at the same place, commencing at 8 o'clock.

FROM SAN FRANCICO.—The schooner H. L. Tiernan, Capt. Jacobsen, arrived yesterday from San Francisco, consigneed to Messrs. Millard & Beedy, with about 150 tons of freight and two passengers (Mrs. Welch and son.) She left San Francisco on the 9th of July, being 15 days on the trip First part of the voyage experienced northerly winds, latter part W. and S. W. winds. After discharging her cargo she will proceed to Moody & Co.'s mill, Burrard Inlet, and load with lumber for the Hawaiian Islands.

THE CRAIGFLOWER SCHOOL PICNIC.—We would remind our readers that there are a few tickets left yet for the picnic to be held at Craigflower next Saturday for the benefit of the free school there. Tickets are only $1 each, admitting a lady and gentleman. Williams' busses will carry passengers there for 25 cents each, and the refreshments will be supplied by Piper. The music will be the best which can be procured in the city.

FROM THE MAINLAND.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, arrived from the mainland on Saturday evening, at six o'clock, bringing a few passengers, four boxes of ice, and a lot of cord wood. Among the passengers were Mrs. Irvine, Archdeacon Woods, Messrs. Brown, Ward, U. Nelson and McCulloch.

FROM PUGET SOUND.—The steamer California, Capt. Hays, arrived from Puget Sound on Saturday morning discharged 85 tons of freight, and proceeded to Nanaimo yesterday morning, to load with coal. She will return here about Tuesday, and leave for Portland on Wednesday morning.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The U. S. steamer Newbern, Capt. Freeman, left the outside harbor on Saturday, at noon, for San Francisco direct, taking as passengers from this place Mrs and Miss Jack. The Newbern will leave San Francisco for Alaska about the 10th of next month.

DAMAGES.—Alexander McKenzie the Scotchman who was banished from San Juan Island, has commenced suit against Capt. Delacombe for amages. The writ was served upon the Captain on Saturday. Mr. Roberston is counsel and Mr. Bishop solicitor for plaintiff.

THE GORGE RETREAT.—Mr. Dods, proprietor of the Gorge Retreat, has erected a beautiful platform for the use of picnic parties and the public generally, which is covered over and secure against all kinds of weather. The public are invited to go and inspect it.

THE CANADIAN RAILROAD.—It will be seen by our telegraphic dispatches of last night, that it is rumored in Ottawa that the Imperial Government have guaranteed a loan for the construction of a railroad to British Columbia.

SPIRITUALISM.—Mr. Todd lectured last night at the Alhambra Hall, on Spiritualism, to a large audience of ladies and gentlemen. The lecturer was listened to very patiently by those present.

The steamer California was detained at the wharf all day yesterday on account of the wind. She left this morning for Nanaimo and will return here on Wednesday or Thursday, leaving for Portland on Friday morning.

LILLOET DISTRICT.—We are told Dr. Black of New Westminster aspires to the position of representative of Lillooet-Clinton district. We believe that he will have no show against Humphreys.

KIDNAPPING.—Two Chinamen are charged with kidnapping a Chinese woman and selling her for three hundred dollars. Mr. Bishop is employed to defend them.

THE MILE-CUT-OFF.—We direct the attention of travellers and packers to Danelson's advertisement in this issue. The Cut-off, we are informed, saves ten miles of travel by turning off to the right, about three or four miles below the mouth of Quesnelle. All parties concerned can govern themselves accordingly.

MAINLAND ITEMS.—From the Mainland Guardian we call the following news: The Burrard Inlet road is in a bad state again. A great deal of interest is being taken throughout the rural districts in the forthcoming election. The steamer Onward arrived from Yale with a few passengers and four boxes of ice for Victoria.

LILLOET.—The good folks of Lilloet were to have had a good time on the 15th, between political meetings, horse racing, and other sports. The crops look splendid in the Lilloet-Clinton country, and farmers expect a heavier crop than ever before. Heat intense.

FORTY-TWO MILE HOUSE.—We are told that this property, situated on the Yale-Lytton road, affords an excellent opportunity to make a profitable investment. Everybody who leaves Yale for the interior must pass the door. A word to the wise is sufficient.

QUICK WORK.—On the last trip of the California to Port Townsend, that vessel discharged 20 tons of freight in twenty minutes. It was checked correctly and handed over to the proper parties in that short space of time. Pretty quick work. The officers of the California are noted for their quickness.
